Forecast For Tayside, Central & Fife
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 1600 on Wednesday 27 Jan 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Rain sleet and snow on Thursday.

This Evening and Tonight:
A dry evening, some clear intervals in northern Tayside with a frost, but generally cloudy, and misty in parts of the Central Belt. Outbreaks of rain or sleet reaching Central, Fife and Perth towards morning wth snow on high ground. Minimum temperature 0 deg C (32 deg F).

Thursday:
Rain and snow in the Central Belt spreading slowly northwards the snow mainly over higher ground inland but possibly to lower levels in Perthshire. Significant falls high ground. Easterly breeze. Maximum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Remaining rain and snow on Friday morning clearing to sunshine and the odd isolated shower. The weekend looks dry with clear or sunny spells but cold with sharp frosts.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.